ABOUT US

WWW.ANDROSAT.IT

ANDROS di Tozzola Andrea born as dealership acoustic insulation (activities carried out in the first 7 years) proposing sound insulation systems in buildings. Our sales methodology directed almost exclusively to firms operating in the construction industry, has transformed over the years from vendor to real partner in business. We propose currently in the market as consultants/applicators of acoustic insulation systems for building. In June 2011 at the end of a research project lasted three years we refined PANISOL line of exclusive products of our productions and conception. These polyethylene products of second generation have been technically improved and are covered by patents and trademark
