

CASA
MARRAZZO
1934

Every house has a memory.
Ours is preserved here.
In our house, food is treated and preserved like a work of art.
Art that you can eat with your eyes, art that you can change and transform into something else.
The only thing that separates us is a lid. A lid that preserves relationships, choices, rules, pleasures, disappointments
and above all values.

PEELED SAN MARZANO PDO TOMATOES OF THE AGRO SARNESE-NOCERINO AREA

CO0677

COLLEZIONE CASA MARRAZZO 1934

Ingredients:

Whole peeled San Marzano PDO tomatoes, San Marzano PDO tomato juice, basil.

The quintessential tomato. With its bright red color, elongated shape, and unmistakable flavor, the San Marzano PDO tomato can be used as a base for any sauce. Casa Marrazzo's San Marzano PDO tomato, grown exclusively in the Agro Sarnese Nocerino area, is the tomato par excellence.

It is renowned all over the world, and it represents the history and tradition of a territory and its people. Its texture is delicate and its flavor is unique.

NEAPOLITAN FRIARIELLI BROCCOLI IN WATER

TR0042

Ingredients:

Friarielli broccoli, water, salt, acidity regulator: citric acid.

Friarielli broccoli represents a product of excellence for our company and, more generally, for Neapolitan cuisine. These are preserved in water so that you can season them as you like and create your own recipe.

It is well known that this vegetable goes by different names: in Naples and Campania, it is called "friarielli;" in Rome, "broccoletti;" in Tuscany, "rapini;" and in Apulia, "cime di rapa." Whatever the term used, the undeniable truth remains the same: we all love them!
